

ELENA NEMKOVA

Biography

Elena Nemkova was born in 1974 in Tadjikistan, and grew up in Saint-Petersburg. Today, she lives between Milan and Saint-Petersburg.

She studied the Fine Arts and Design from the Academy of Industrial Arts in Saint-Petersburg, then the Accademia di Belle Arti in Milan. She participated at advanced courses in visual arts from Fondazione Ratti in Como (Italy), next she was accepted in residence in Metafutur, the Contemporary art center of Shargorod in Ukraine.

Her work is impregnated with a fascination for the boldness of the scientific research, which she adapts the principles. She exposes regularly in Russia and Italy, when she lives today. Recently, the Bonniers Konsthall of Stockholm, the Kunsthalle of Sao Paulo, the Museum Serralves of Porto, the Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art in Trento and Rovereto, the Spiral Wacoal Art Center of Tokyo, the San Francisco Art Institute or still the Museum of Modern Art of Moscow welcomed his works and performances.